O Sun God, Sivam!
Thou dazzling focus of life-preserving light!
Sublimine mystery spangling from afar!
Swift became that burst too potent on the sight!
This radiant type of strength and youth!
Glowing eternally!

May the golden-eyed Sivam come forth!
Shining forth he rises from the left of the dawn!
Placed by sages, my God Sivam!
Stepped forth and never missed his place!
His steps forth the defenders of the day the night!
Timeing, for shining, the shining variations!

O Sun God, Surya!
Thou dazzling fount of life-parasailing light!
Sublimity mystery spreading from afar!
Swift became that burst too potent on the sight!
This radiant type of strength and youth!
Glowing eternally!

May the golden-eyed Surya come brighter!
Shining forth he rose from the top of the dawn!
Praised by singers, my God Surya!
Striding forth and never missed his place!
He steps forth to the center of the sky, the sole!
Sustaining, far-brightening, the shining incarnation!

O Sun God, Sanyatra!
Thou dazzling first of life-permeating light!
Sublime mystery speeding from afar!
Swift became that burst too potent on the sight!
This radiant type of strength and youth!
Glowing eternally!

May the golden-eyed Sanyatra come better!
Shining forth he rises from the left of the dawn!
Praised by singers, oh God Sanyatra!
Stepped forth and ever missed his place!
He steps forth the conqueror of the sky the noble!
Singing, fair-shining, the shining wonder!
- Rig Veda, vi, 62

O Sun God, Surya!
Thou dazzling form! I see the light!
Soul, sun, passion shining from afar!
Smite, thou sun, and smear his sight!
This radiant form of strength and youth!
Glowing eternally!

May the golden-eyed, Shakti, come better!
Shining forth he rises from the left of the dean!
Praised by seers, my God Shakti!
Shining forth and never missed his place!
This light, never the sun comes to the other,
Giving light, the closing season!

O Sun God, Swaytri!
Thou dazzling burst of life-permeating light!
Sublime mystery spreading from afar!
Swaytri became that burst too potent on the sight!
This radiant type of strength and youth!
Glowing eternally!

May the golden-eyed Swaytri come hither!
Shining forth he rises from the lap of the dawn!
Praised by singers, may God Swaytri!
Stepped forth and never missed his place!
He steps forth the salutation of the sky the wise!
Swaytri, far shining, the shining seasons!

They dazzling beam of life-provoking light!
Shall the mystery spreading from afar?
Swift became that burst too potent on the sight!
This radiant typo of strength and youth!
Glowing eternally!

May the golden-eyed Suardha never abate!
Shining forth he rises from the top of the dawn!
Praised by all, my God Surya!

Praised forth and ever missed his place!
He shines forth the abode of the sky the might!
Shining, for shining, the shining abode!

O Sun God, Surya!
Thou dazzling frost of life-permeating light!
Soul's most mystery shining from afar!
Swift became that burst too potent on the sight!
This radiant type of strength and youth!
Glowing eternally!

May the golden-eyed Surya come before!
Shining forth be verse from the lips of the divine!
Praised by voice, my God Surya!
Stripped forth and never missed his place!
He steps forth the avenues of the sky the note!
Sunning, far shining, the shining emanation!
